Wouldn't it be great if the company who cleaned your carpets really cared about your needs?

Yes, it would be, wouldn't it? The trouble with so many services and businesses today is that they really don't seem to be concerned with your individual needs. From impersonal service to less than high quality workmanship, many businesses just don't seem to care. Worse than that are the less than honest businesses that prey upon clients' lack of knowledge and use high pressure sales tactics to get people to spend more than their "too-good-to-be-true" advertisements offered.

Well, I'm here to offer you an alternative to shoddy workmanship, unfulfilled promises and high pressure sales tactics. My name is John Smith, and I'm the owner of Healthy Home Cleaning Services.

My company not only offers a wide variety of cleaning services to you and your family, but we also deliver outstanding customer service and back all of our work with our Famous Three Way Guarantee.

We've been serving the people of the Happy Valley area for four years, and because of our commitment to outstanding workmanship and unsurpassed customer service, we have grown and prospered.

If you would like to learn more about us, please visit our website, www.healthyhomecleaningservices.com. You'll read what your neighbors in the Happy Valley area say about us, look over our list of comprehensive cleaning packages for your home or send us an email requesting a FREE, NO OBLIGATION Carpet Inspection at your convenience.

If you would prefer, call us at 555.555.5555 and ask for our FREE Consumer's Information Guide to Carpet Cleaning. This informative booklet will help you become "a smarter, more educated shopper" and help you steer clear of the common pitfalls and mistakes people make when choosing a carpet cleaner.

I look forward to hearing from you and serving you and your family.
